Motor Hearse

WHY A MOTOR NEEDS REGRINDING

Six Reasons Why—

1. Loss of power and pep.
2. Continual fouling of spark plugs.
3. A new round ring will never fit an egg-shaped hole.
4. Leaking cylinders are the seat of all motor troubles.
5. When regrinding an old bloc you have a thoroly seasoned casting which will stay put.
6. Accuracy of the cylinder walls with new pistons and rings means perfect compression and combustion—result, power and pep and a satisfied car owner.

Is your car a pleasure to drive?

FOREST GROVE AND BOS-TON

Mrs. Geo. Fowler

November came in with quite a change in the weather, but as Walt Mason says: "Home life is truer when the storm howls round the roof and basement, when our old sitting room is warm though frost is on the casement. So light the lamp and bar the door and keep the old fire humming; all other seasons are a bore, and winter time is coming." Several farm club women met at the home of Mrs. Clem Fleisch Thursday to make dress forms. A Halloween party was given at the home of Dick Clements Monday night. Mrs. Joe Ihms spent Monday at Jim Browne's. Charles Fletcher called at George Fowler's Monday evening. Gale Carr purchased some corn from John Jungman. George Gardner took a load of coal to Lamar Tuesday. Mont Browne is working in the shops at Pittsburg. George Wilkinson sold 18 head of hogs to the McKibbens and delivered them Thursday. The skunk, possum and coon hunters are getting to be quite numerous. Al Blair is doing some plastering for J. W. Rakestraw. Mrs. Carl Spoor, who has been quite ill since the birth of her baby three or four weeks ago, is reported very low.

Alex Steelman was dragging the roads Friday. J. T. Madden was cutting his broomcorn last week. Charles Rist and family motored to Carthage Sunday. The teacher and pupils of Forest Grove are planning a program and box supper to be given at the schoolhouse Friday night, November 17. George Wilkinson sold some cattle in Jasper Saturday. George Gardner and family visited relatives near Sylvania Saturday. Fred Fowler and wife spent Sunday with the latter's parents. Preaching services were held at Forest Grove Sunday morning and evening. Dick Clements and wife called at George Wilkinson's Sunday. George Gardner and wife called at George Fowler's Sunday. Mrs. Charles Rist will entertain the missionary society Thursday afternoon of this week. Mrs. Homer Rakestraw is staying at the home of her parents, C. W. Kunkler and wife. Homer Rakestraw's house burned Sunday morning, very little of the contents being saved. Mr. Lowe, who has been staying in Lamar and taking treatment for gall stones, came home Monday. He is reported some better. Theodore Wheeler took Mrs. Virgil Martin to the doctor Saturday to have her hand treated. Her hand still pains her very much.

DIAMOND

Miss Ethel Ingles

Miss Vera Boyd spent Tuesday night with the Diamond school teacher, Nelle Cook. Harve Law and wife were Jasper shoppers Tuesday. Mrs. B. Ingles spent Monday with Mrs. Charles Elting. After a strenuous and busy summer the farmers feel themselves at a loss to employ themselves profitably. Charles Nett, Silas Denniston, Harve Law and John Buzzard have been supplying the neighborhood with fresh meat, while others have been laying in their winter supply of apples.

Tom Wardlow and family were moving last week to their home, formerly occupied by Gerald Sessor and family. Mr. Sessor having moved to Joe Deardorff's place in the Lynnland neighborhood. Mrs. Theo Mitchell called on her daughter, Mrs. Irwin Spoon, Wednesday. Mrs. Spoon and little daughter are doing nicely. John Pfander and family spent Sunday with E. Pfander and wife. Mrs. Charles Nett was a Jasper visitor Saturday and while there called on her nephew, Fred Cline, who has been forced to leave his work at Kansas City on account of his health, being troubled with something which the doctors pronounce chronic appendicitis. He is planning to go to St. Louis this week where he will undergo an operation. Fred spent his boyhood in this community and has a host of friends who wish him a speedy recovery. Mrs. Hane and family spent Sunday in Webb City visiting her son-in-law, Ivan Blaze and family. The ladies farm club, which was organized last Tuesday night, held their first meeting with Mrs. Lillian Boyd Thursday afternoon. Most of the members were present and a very profitable evening was spent discussing club plans. Dainty refreshments of cake and fruit salad were served by the hostess and her daughter Miss Vera. Rachel Hane, Virgie Bull, Grace Berryhill and Bee Pope visited the Diamond School Friday. The wienie roast which was to have been held in S. R. Denniston grove Tuesday night, was postponed until Saturday night on account of the rain. About 100 friends gathered around the campfire and thoroughly enjoyed the evening. About 25 pounds of wienies besides the other good things that go with them were consumed by the crowd before the rain clouds sent them all hurrying home. Charles Elting and family, Rurie Howerly, Ruby Law, and Cornie Bull spent Sunday at Bart Ingles'.

Ward & Earl are shipping a car of hogs today.

Mrs. George Tabler of Carthage visited relatives here yesterday.

Mrs. Marion Owings visited her son Glenn at Springfield last week.

Mrs. Walter A. Brown and little son of Great Bend, Kans., are here to visit relatives.

Wesley Cline and family and two young men from Pittsburg, Kans., visited here the first of the week.
